Newsletter no 5: Friday 14th October 2022

Dear School Family,

Liturgy and Worship

Keep praying

In this week's Gospel Jesus tells the story of a widow who wanted justice and asked for help from a judge.

In Jesus' time, women weren't protected or supported as they are now. They did not have the same rights. Thankfully this is very different today but for the woman in the story, being a widow meant she had no source of income and no power or means to help herself.

Initially the judge ignored the widow but she refused to give up and persisted until he heard her case. Eventually the judge gave in and helped her as he should have done in the first place.

The message here is to be persistent and not to give up. Jesus teaches us that God is always there listening to our prayers. He is listening even when we are wondering if He has heard us. Sometimes the answer may not be obvious to us but God always has what is best for us at heart. Jesus teaches us never to give up on God as God will never give up on us.

Faith in Action

Be resilient this week. Perhaps make your Keyham Key a 'Persevering Parrot!' Sometimes the things worth having mean we need to work hard for them. We should never give up on ourselves, our learning or each other. Never give up as God never gives up on us.

Who has put our Gospel Value of 'Compassion' into action this week?

Courage: Jaxon for showing compassion to his friends, especially when they are hurt.

Kindness: Janita is a really caring friend and checks if others are okay.

Compassion: Sapphire will offer a hug to anyone who needs cheering up.

Peace: Isla has shown compassion for one of her peers this week and stayed in at break time to help him make a card for someone.

Integrity: Jessica for always being a kind and caring person towards both children and adults.

Justice: Liliana has shown compassion to Mrs Holmes by helping her to settle into Year 6 and showing her the ways of our classroom.

Who has put our Gospel Virtue of 'Justice' into action this week?

Courage: Pipelayomi for making sure that our resources are properly looked after.

Kindness: Layton was able to share when he had been hurt so that he could be helped.

Compassion: Oscar has asked the Play leaders to help make choosing a goalkeeper a fair process.

Peace: Logan has ensured that all members of our class are treated fairly.

Integrity: Sienna for setting up fair and enjoyable games for anyone to play.

Justice: Ethan T has been nominated by his friend because Ethan helped him to stay calm and in control.

Each class is the guardian of our Values.

Next week, we are looking for faith in action by noticing:

Value: Kindness

Virtue: Fortitude
