Dear School Family,

Liturgy and Worship

Loved by God

In this week's Gospel, we hear about the 'Transfiguration.' This is a moment in which Jesus is transformed before the disciples. It is one of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, which reflect upon times when Jesus was illuminated or revealed to the world as God's son.

As Jesus and the disciples stand high on a mountain, Jesus is transfigured,

"His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus."

While he was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!"

The disciples were overawed and frightened but Jesus reached out to them and reassured them not to be afraid.

Faith in Action

We can all listen to Jesus, just as God the Father asks us to. We hear Jesus' words when we listen to stories in the Bible. Jesus speaks to each of us deep in our hearts. We can practise listening to Jesus when we sit quietly and pray. Take time, this Lent, to pray and spend time with Jesus. It can be spending time in silence; appreciating a beautiful view; or saying a prayer.

Who has put our Gospel Value of Justice into action this week?

Courage: Kaiden for noticing when friends were arguing and helped them put it right.
Kindness: Janita for making sure everyone is okay.

Compassion: Holly made sure that everyone had a chance to speak during RE.

Peace: Eliza for letting the adults know when someone was being unkind.

Integrity: Oliver M made sure responsibility was shared equally during a group task this week.

Justice: Jackie for always playing fairly.

Who has put our Gospel Virtue of Charity into action this week?

Courage: Thomas for sharing toys.

Kindness: Bradley for choosing to be a helper during arithmetic instead of having laptop time once he's finished.

Compassion: Sapphire always helps her friends when they feel sad or lonely.

Peace: Abigail for making sure that someone else was okay when they got upset at lunch time.

Integrity: Jessica freely gives her time up to support her friends.

Justice: Maryam by her friend because she is always giving up her time to help other people as a Sports Leader

Each class is the guardian of our Values.

Next week's Value: Integrity

Next week's Virtue: Faith

World Book Day
Lucky Listeners

Luke Pollard visited our school and read the story 'The Missing Bees'.

CAFOD Fast Day

We raised £29.10 for CAFOD Fast Day All proceeds will go to those affected by the devastating earthquake in Turkey and Syria.

This Week's Keyham Keys

Courage: Harleigh for being a Healthy Hyena. They have been practising their skipping almost every day!

Kindness: Edith for being a Persevering Parrot in all of her learning. She is always trying her very best.

Compassion: Alfie has been a Persevering Parrot this week. He tried his very best in our new writing group and produced some outstanding work. Alfie continuously kept checking his writing to make sure that it made sense.

Peace: Emmet has been a Go for it Gorilla since coming back from half term and has shown Mrs Quick his brilliant home learning on accurately using written methods for the four operations most days.

Integrity: Brooke has been a Slinky-Linky Snake in Maths this week, using what she knows to help her develop her learning further.

Justice: Isaac D has been a Slinky-Linky Snake in Reading this week, making excellent connections between events in our class text of Beowulf and how characters may have felt about them.

Friday 31st March 2pm - Stations of the Cross led by Integrity and Justice classes.

Jesus, dear Savior,
during these days of Lent,
I want to fast,
to repent and to pray.
Above all else I want to stay in the circle of Your love.
Walk with me and surround me with
Your light; lead me and guide me in Your footsteps.
During this season of Lent help me to follow You and imitate Your love.
May this cross remind me today and throughout Lent of
Your great love for me.

Amen.
